

Childrens' Religious Oriented Program 9/2007 - 5/2008

Completed registration form and a $10 check (to cover workbook cost) needs to be received before August 1st, 2007 for the year 2007-08. During the year enrollment will be based on the waiting list. Please retain this page and the calendar for your records.

What is C.R.O.P.?

In order to educate our children in our culture and understand our religious practices, Hindu Center is providing an excellent opportunity for our future generations. This unique teaching is not available in schools or other extra curricular activities. Enclosed is the information and registration form to benefit from this opportunity. C. R. O. P is a Children's Religious Oriented Program for K. G to 10th grade. The children are divided in groups with a limit of 20 per class. A waiting list is maintained.

Expectations for C.R.O.P Participants

1. Total of 20 Classes will be held during the year as per the calendar provided. (Three additional days for Diwali Celebration, Fun Day and Finale are also planned).
2. All current members of the Hindu Center may participate.
3. Parent is/are expected to attend the Aarti at 11:30am; this is the time when important announcements are communicated to the families.
4. Regular attendance is expected. Three genuine absences may be excused if the teacher is informed prior to the day of class or the day after the class. It is our humble effort to maintain a valued discipline in this organization. To cultivate respect to the organization and to make it fair to the children on wait list this rule will be strictly enforced.
5. All parents need to provide Prasad for at least two Sundays during the year.
6. Children are expected to come prepared with their C.R.O.P folder.
7. Parents may visit the class with their child once prior to joining.
